DEDICATION

TO

SANBORN

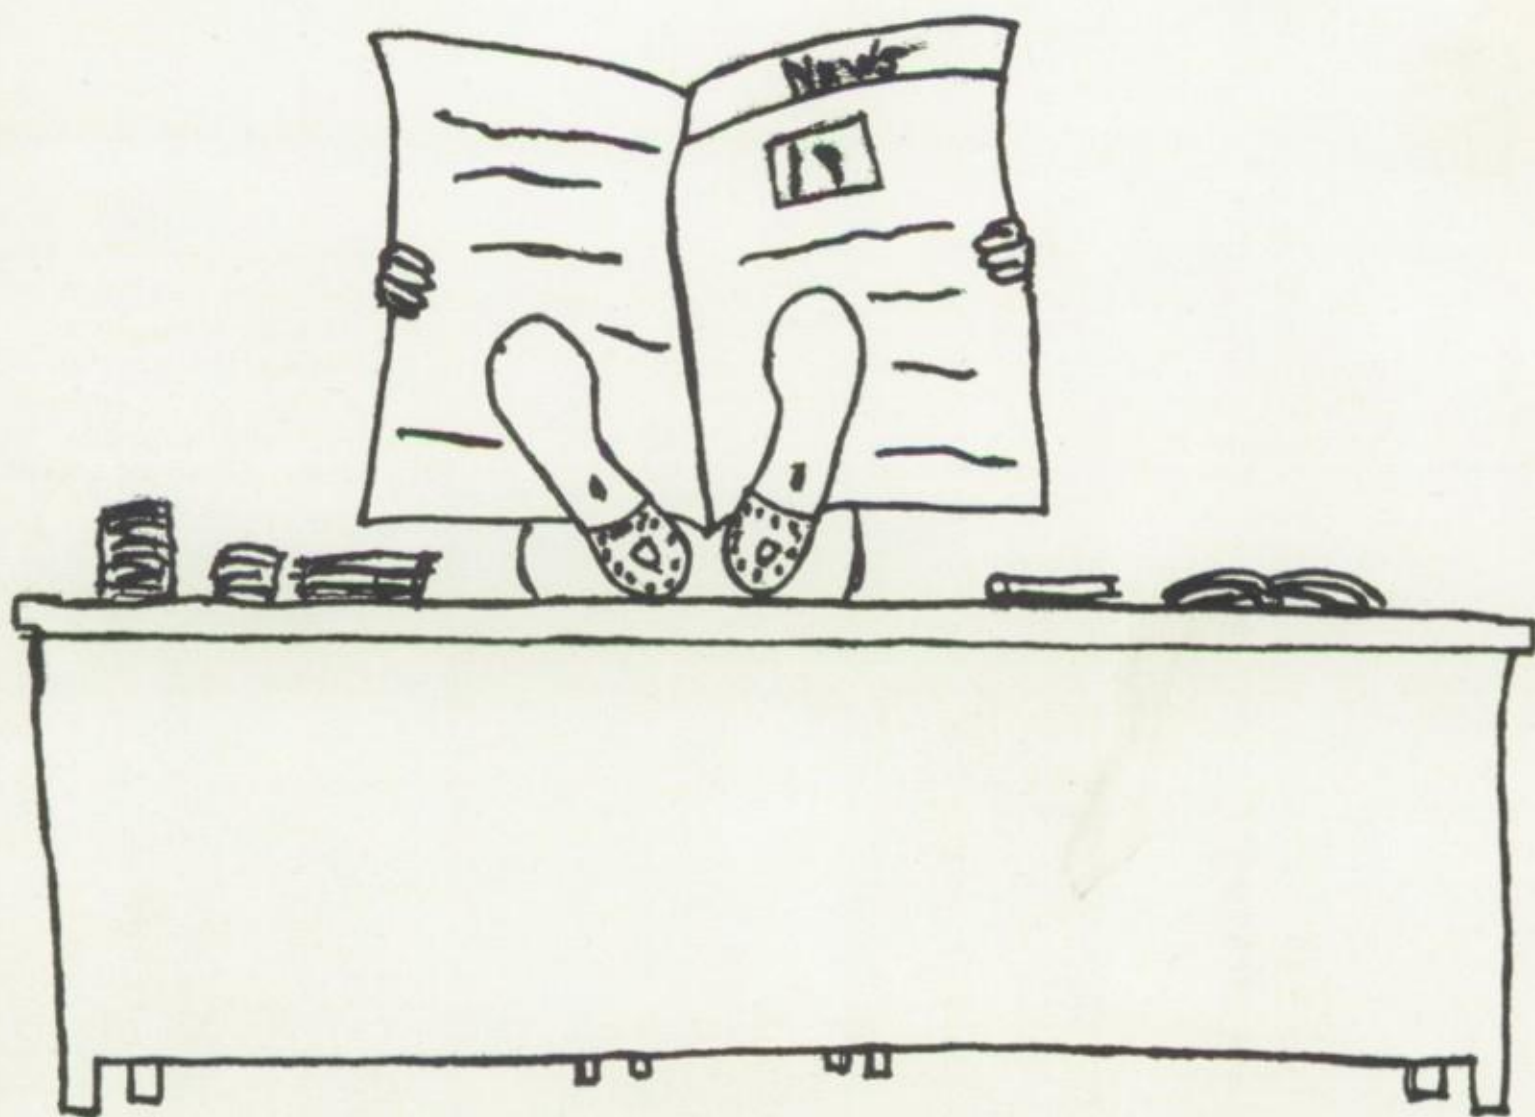

We, the Class of 54, wish to dedicate this annual to the town of Sanborn on its 75th anniversary. It may be a small town but it will remain a big treasure in our memories throughout our lives. It was through the support and backing of the Sanborn people we were able to complete many of our plans while in Sanborn High, and wish to show our appreciation through this dedication. We hope Sanborn will be as proud of us as we are of being a small part of it.

JUNIORS

FRONT ROW: Mr. Borden, Kay Roelofs, Delores Caauwe, Rita Dolphin, Ramona McGranahan, Francine Vos, Virginia Gano, Edna Foley, Miss Berryhill.
 SECOND ROW: Del Wisner, Gale Rubsam, Edward Gano, Clifford Vander Schaaf, Kenneth Dorman, Cornelius Maris, Bernard Prew, Larry Fahlenkamp.

OFFICERS

JUNIOR JINGLES

Clifford Vander Schaaf
appears to be shy,
Don't be fooled, he's quite a guy.

Kay Roelofs
is a country lassie,
In basketball she's really classy.

Virginia Gano
has learned to rob,
At least of guy's hearts I know.

Ramona McGranahan
always smiles for me,
But there's a special smile for Jerry.

Francine Vos
thinks school is just fine,
If there is some fun on the sideline.

Dolores Caauwe
with eyes so brown,
Is lots of fun to be around.

Edna Mae Foley
one who can play the clarinet.
Whether it's hep or classic she's it.

Bernard Prew
head is always level,
He can really be a little devil.

Gale Rubsam
is our class romeo,
Don't give up Gale, you'll grow.

Jim Gano
he's no jewel, gem or lass,
He's the outlaw of Mr. Borden's class.

Kenneth Dorman
whistles and sings,
And skips school and things.

Del Wisner
will soon run a store,
But first must learn some more.

Cornelius Maris
an intelligent boy,
Is always studying when you walk by.

Lloyd Vander Berg
has an athletic build,
With some cute prank his brain is filled.

Donald Storm
is our accordian man,
Maybe some day he'll have a band.

Omer Grafton
is quite tall,
For him someday a girl will fall.

Larry Fahlenkamp
from hard work refrains,
It's too hard on his brains.

LeRoy Rozenboom
is his name,
Farming seems to be his game.

Roger Gacke
likes to laugh and shout,
In history finds the easiest way out.

Rita Dolphin
quiet and nice is she,
But let us know some more.

David Duimstra
with crazy pranks his brain is filled,
And school work makes him ill.

Jim Getting
he's quite a character, quite a pest,
He won't give the girls any peace.

MUSIC SUMMARY

The music department of Sanborn High School had a very successful year. Our high school band has 48 members in uniform. The marching band was especially active, playing at all of the home football games. We also marched at one of the Morningside Football Games and at the Orange City Tulip Festival. The band received a two rating in the state contest. The mixed chorus played a big part in the music department. It consisted of 39 members and also received a two rating in the state contest. The girls' glee club contained 38 members and was the only big group to get a one rating this year.

Sanborn's junior band, which consisted of 18 members, readily supplied the demands of the big band.

Ramona McGranahan, Kay Roelofs, Calvin Vander Woude, and Ed Baldwin spent Thanksgiving vacation in Des Moines, singing in the all-state chorus.

A Christmas program, with all of the grades in school taking part, was the biggest program furnished by the music department. We also had a spring concert with all of the contestants for the preliminary contest appearing. Mixed Chorus, glee club, and band also took part at this concert.

We had 14 entries in the state solo contest. Delores Van Wyke's piccolo solo was the only entry to receive a one rating. Twelve of the entries received two ratings. The contestants were:

Shirley Hickey-treble voice high

Ed Baldwin-baritone

Donna Snyder-saxophone

Janice Getting-bass clarinet

Jim Getting-baritone

Kay Roelofs-clarinet

Calvin Vander Woude-baritone

The band chose Eileen Damman as the senior who had contributed the most to the music department. She received the Arion Award which is given by the Twentieth Century Club.

We would like to thank Mrs. Bueghly for the time and effort she has spent to help us become more interested in music, and better musicians.

"WE SHOOK THE FAMILY TREE"
Presented November 6 and 13, 1953

Characters:

Hildegarde- who is tired of being a wall flower
Mona McGranahan

Mr. Dolson- her father- Don Storm

Mrs. Dolson- her mother- Edna Mae Foley

Sally- her younger sister- Virginia Gano

Bob- her older brother- Del Wisner

Jimmy- the younger brother- Lloyd Vander Burgh

Paige- who likes to play postman- Rita Dolphin

Jill- her friend- Delores Caauwe

Freddie Shermer- who wears knickers- Jim Getting

Mr. Shermer- his father- Ed Gano

Mrs. Shermer- his mother- Francine Vos

Because Hildegarde didn't have a date for the Prom, she entered a debate to attract attention, unwillingly convincing everyone her father was a drunkard.

Mrs. Dolson, trying to help, got her a date with Freddie Shermer, the boss' son.

The Hildegarde got mixed up with some beauty clay, a boss in the bathtub, and a stolen watch, while trying to get some long pants for Freddie, so her brothers and Ellie-May and Jill couldn't make fun of Freddie at the dance.

Freddie showed up to take Hildegarde to the Prom in a new suit with long pants. He admitted he took the watch from his father's desk and exchanged it for the suit.

Then they left happily for the Prom.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1941--25 eager boys and girls came to Sanborn Public School for the first day of a big new adventure-kindergarten.

Eileen Damman, Marlene Getting, Joyce Kool, Donna Snyder, Shirley Ver Hoef, Joline Van Roekel, Bill Hakeman, Jim Peterson, and Robert Sullivan, have weathered the storm starting and advancing through school together.

Miss Millicent Eppelsheimer was the first teacher to face the class which was made up of -- Carol Ahrens, Eileen Damman, Marilyn Davis, Marlene Getting, Jean and Joann Siedsma, Donna Snyder, Shirley Ver Hoef, Joline Van Roekel, Jack Dolphin, Bill Hakeman, Calvin Heemstra, Jim Peterson, Robert Sullivan, Shirley Anderson, Tomas Chrysler, Larry Fahlenkamp, Richard Flynn, David Nonnemon, Virgil Strang, Isiah Jeffery, and Janice Richards. While under her direction David Nonnemon dropped in second semester and Isiah Jeffery in first semester.

Next fall Miss Mildred Sargent was given the job of putting some knowledge in our heads. This year Gladys De Roos, Patricia Hutchson, Donna Olson, Delbert Wright, Bob Crawford, Arvin Holmton joined the group. Patricia Hutchson and Joann Seidsma, Donna Olson, Shirley Anderson, Larry Fahlenkamp, Richard Flynn, Virgil String, Janice Richards, and Bob Crawford, became part of the past.

Miss Cleo Watterson guided us through second grade where we picked Dorothy Warnke and Bob Crawford.

Miss Ruth Frohweine was our fourth grade teacher where we picked up Ray Huibertse Howard Gaeke, Keith Butler, Anna Mae Van Groew, Thad Hall, Donna Flickner, Shirley Hickey and Darlene Harms. We also lost Jack Dolphin, Anna Mae Van Groew and Darlene Harms.

In our first year as big boys and girls upstairs our fifth grade teacher was Mrs. Slikkerveer. Delbert Stoner joined us. Nobody dropped that year.

During our last year in grade school we gained Lynn Gowen and Betty De Weerd. We also lost Betty De Weerd at the end of the first semester. Our teacher was Delores Ellingson.

The next year we entered Junior High with these pupils joining us--Keith Hopkins, Dwayne Bieser, Don Rubsam, Janice Getting, Jean Hickey, Betty Roetman, LuAnn Wagner. Keith Hopkins, Joyce Simmons and Norman Hedges left us at the end of the year. Mr. Gowen was Superintendant.

In our final year of Junior High, Glenn De Jong, Vern Neitzke, and Lane Leemkuil entered our grade. Carol Ahrens, Thad Hall, Howard Gacke, Keith Butler left.

When we entered high school we really thought we were something, because it took the whole senior class to hold us down during initiation. However we soon settled down with--Ed Baldwin, Larry and Terry Baldwin, Bob Crawford, Glenn De Jong, Bill Hakeman, Lane Leemkuil, Jim Peterson, Virgil Strang, Delbert Stoner, Robert Sullivan, Delbert Wright, Eileen Damman, Marlene Getting, Shirley Hickey, Mary Horst, Donna Flickner, Joyce Kool, Glenda Menning, Donna Snyder, Joline Van Roekel, Shirley Ver Hoef, Dorothy Warnke, Dwayne Bieser, Ray Huibregtse, Wayne Raymond, Don Rubsam, Arwin Van Wyk, Janice Getting, Lynn Gowen, Jean Hickey, Betty Roetman, LuAnn Wagner. Here we picked up Ed Baldwin and Wayne Raymond who left us at the end of the first semester. We also lost Glenn De Jong and Delbert Stoner. The teachers this year were--Gowen, Franz, Grunwald, Schmidt, Johnson, Shortenhaus, Achom, Torgelson, Kott.

As Sophomores, Vern Neitzke, Virgil Strang and Lynn Gowen left us and Marlene Schultz joined our pack. Teachers were--Ellett, Glover, Gowen, Franz, Pickford, Shortenhaus, Muro, Kott, Borden, Elser, Hoppert.

In our Junior year we lost Glenda Menning and gained Tracy De Jong in the second semester. Mr. Erwin, Superintendent. Teachers were-- Erwin, Ellett, Franz, Glover, Muro, Kott, Schaefer and Roghair, Pickford, Borden, and Aschom.

As seniors we didn't lose any but did gain Virgil Strang. Seniors are-- Larry Baldwin, Terry Baldwin, Ed Baldwin, Bob Crawford, Bill Hakeman, Lane Leemkuil, Jim Peterson, Bob Sullivan, Delbert Wright, Eileen Damman, Donna Flickner, Marlene Getting, Shirley Hickey, Joyce Kool, Marlene Schultz, Donna Snyder, Joline Van Roekel, Shirley Ver Hoef, Dorothy Warnke, Tracy De Jong, Dewayne Bieser, Ray Huibregtse, Donald Rubsam, Arwin Van Wyk, Janice Getting, Jean Hickey, LuAnn Pingel, and Virgil Strng.

Teachers in our last year are--Erwin, Ellett, Glover, Bueghley, Shrinter, Moll, Anderson, Borden, Berryhill, and McGreevy.

So after Friday, May 21, the 28 seniors will start out for themselves to make personal history instead of class history. May these graduates have as much success in the succeeding years as they have had so far in life.

Once again the time has come,
For the seniors to bid adieu.
But before we leave we want to express,
Our deepest thanks to you.

Let us take a look at the members of this class,
And show you something of our past.
First is Ed Baldwin, who has a mind of his own,
He's the only one who keeps Janice busy on the phone.

Then comes Larry and Terry Baldwin, two guys that look alike,
They're usually found together, and are the class delight.
Next in line is one who's quite shy,
DeWayne Beiser is his name, Oh what a guy!

And who should be next, but a guy you all know,
Bob Crawford the lover, for him the girls go.
If you want to hear music, very well played,
Eileen Damman is tops, any time of the day.

If you hear someone say "Zowie", who else could it be,
But Tracy De Jong, quite a character is she.
Donna Flickner of "Fluff", is a twirler in the band,
She's very short and sweet, and knows how to find her man.

A girl that can make you feel happy and gay,
Is Janice Getting, with her very kind way.
Next is Marlene Getting, a manhater she claims to be,
But she still has her eye on a certain guy, as many of you can see.

Bill Hakeman, with his Olds, is next in line,
He goes with Joyce, and everyone thinks he's fine.
Now comes Jean Hickey, the comedian of our class,
We really enjoyed having her with us in the past.

Next is Shirley Hickey, or "squirrely" by name,
She will someday soon be a teacher of great fame.
Ray Huibregtse is next, to many of us "Goose",
He's outstanding in sports and is not on the loose.

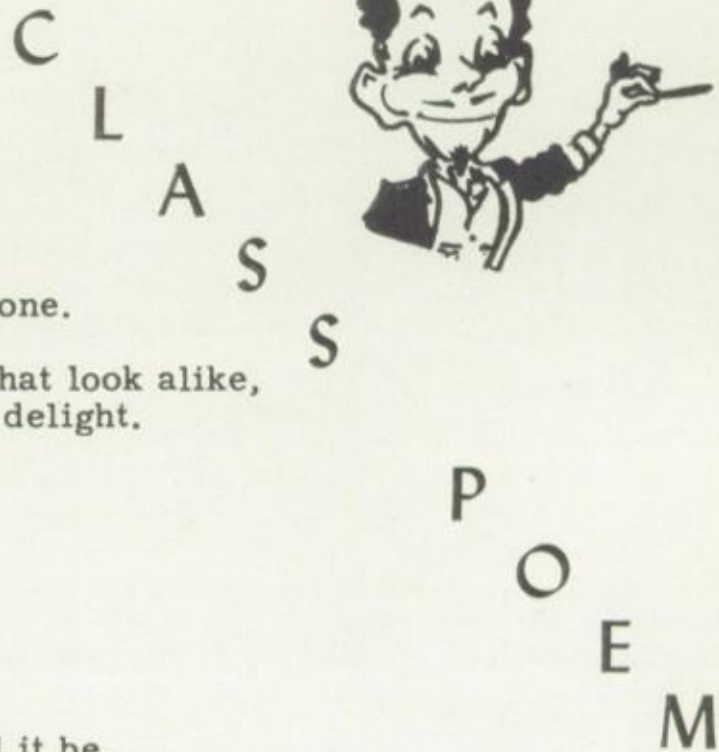

She is majorette of our band, and homecoming queen,
Joyce Kool is her name, but she seldom is seen.
Lane Lemkuil or "Lem", is quite a guy we all know,
He's in the Navy Reserve, and is really a good joe.

Another quiet one of our class, and such a character too,
Is James Peterson or "Pete", there's not much he can't do.
Now comes Mrs. Pingel, or to us just plain LuAnn,
For her work on the annual, she deserves a grateful hand.

If you hear someone yodel, as you walk down the street,
You'll know it's Don Rubsam, he can't be beat.
Marlene Schultz in next, with her long black hair,
She usually wears a smile and never has a care.

The Saxophone player of our class, and also basketball star,
Is Donna Snyder, tall and dark, in this world she'll go far.
Virgil Strang who returned for our final year,
Is also very quiet but brings us all great cheer.

Next is the Irish of our class, and a fine one too.
Be Gore, it's Bob Sullivan, anything for you he'd do.
Jolene Van Roekel, who will someday very soon,
Hear the wedding bells, strike up a lovely tune.

Arwin Van Wyk, another quiet one in our class,
Spends a lot of his time on the farm, and likes to watch time pass.
Next is Shirley Ver Hoef, a girl that's seldom heard,
She has a pleasing smile, yet never says a word.

Another one of our class who already has found her guy,
Is Dorothey Warnke, and we want to wish her good luck by and by.
Last but not least, is the professor in our class,
Delbert Wright is his name, who can surpass.

This is the end of our Senior class,
The one that will soon be of the past.
The time has drawn nigh for us to part,
And we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

So to you of the school and you of the town,
Who made us feel welcome when we were around.
We want you to know that we'll try our best,
To prove we are capable of success.

Shed not your tears for us this day,
For we do not see the skys of gray.
We have a new life, lying ahead,
It is our challenge, one we do not dread.

As we go into the world to take on a new role,
We'll try to remember what we were told.
So to SHS we bid adieu,
And may God Bless each and every one of you.

- I LuAnn Pingel do will and bequeath to Edna Foley my man catching ability, long finger-nails, and different pairs of glasses.

CLASS PROPHECY

It was a beautiful spring morning when my space ship from Mars finally arrived on earth. Ten years had passed since I had seen the good town of Sanborn so I decided to spend some of my time there and see if I could recognize it.

The first thing I saw upon arriving was a huge night club. I'd heard to go in and have a look around. In his large office, Bob Sullivan was sitting at a desk counting his proceeds from the night before. He told me Bob Crawford was his main attraction this week. Bob had taken over Victor Borge's place and was entertaining at all the most famous night clubs in the country. He said he was going to have Eileen Damman, the word famed concert pianist and Shirley Hickey, the equally famous opera singer next week. He figured he'd really hit the jack pot to be so lucky as to get two such talented people in one week. I wished him luck and wandered back out into the street where I saw a tow-headed little boy selling the morning paper. He turned out to be one of Shirley Ver Hoef's children. He told me that his mother had married soon after she graduated from high school and now had four other boys beside himself. I bought a newspaper from him and moved out of the way to glance at it. The headlines blazed: "Delbert Wright, famed inventor has just successfully invented the supersonic, superflour superjet." It is estimated to be the best jet that has been invented yet. On the sports page there was a full page picture of Jim Peterson who had just been named the world's most popular wrestler.

I heard drums in a distance and waited to see what was going on. As the noise came closer I discovered it was a parade led by a very pretty girl. I put on my glasses to get a better look and found it to be Joyce Kool. Following closely behind the band were two Cadillacs with Donna Flickner riding in one and Lane Leemkuil riding in the other. Donna was the town's mayor and was now introducing Lane as an Admiral in the Navy who had just come back from a dangerous mission in the Arctic Ocean.

As I moved down the street, I saw a man changing the billing on the front of a large theatre so I waited to see what show was coming next. Ray Huibregtse was starring in a new picture. I inquired about it and found out that a Hollywood agent discovered Ray and immediately gave him a ten year contract. This is Ray's third picture of the year and was already working on another. The man told me that he had a very good agent. (By the way, his agent was Mary Ann who is also his wife.)

I wandered down a side street until I saw two ladies leaning over a fence talking for all they were worth. I found them to be Dorothy Warnke, now Dorothy Boneschans and Joliene Van Roekel, now Joliene Toner both happily married. They were discussing the plans for their monthly meeting of the women's club. LuAnn Pingel, also happily married, was president. She and her husband own one of the largest farms in Iowa.

I moved a little farther down the street and saw a huge moving van parked in front of a new house. I saw Ed Baldwin carrying box after box into the house. He told me he and Janice Getting now his wife, were medical missionaries and had just returned from the wilds of Africa where they had been teaching the natives better health habits. Janice came out of the house just then with three little miniature missionaries following her. I said hello, then moved on down the street.

On the edge of town I saw a cute little building with the sign: "Tracy and Dwayne's Wacky Whip Drive-In". I walked in and found Tracy waiting on Jean Hickey. After she finished she told me that after they had graduated, Dwayne became quite a casanova and she had been the lucky one who had caught him. They were making thousands of dollars on their large chain of Wacky Whip Drive-Ins. I asked her about Jean Hickey. She told me that Jean was the Home Economics teacher in Sanborn and a very good one, too. There was only one drawback however, she had to be away from her husband, which of course, is the new Victor Borgie, so much of the time.

On my way back to the main street, I saw a large building with a sign out front that said: "Snyder and Getting Fix-It Shop." The names sounded familiar so I went inside to find out more. As soon as I stepped inside I recognized Marlene Getting in a nurse's uniform. She told me that she and Donna Snyder had built the medical clinic in Sanborn after they had graduated from nurses' training together. She was so happy they had built it near the creamery, which is owned by Larry and Terry Baldwin. This way she and Larry could take turns watching their twin sons. They were continually getting lost in the new block long creamery. Larry and Terry certainly became successful as new owners of the creamery. Marlene also told me that they were planning to expand their clinic into Melvin so Donna could be closer to her home, which is on a farm just south of Melvin.

Back of Main Street I saw another big building with the sign: "Strang Enterprise" written on the front. As I peered in the window I saw a beautiful secretary sitting on the boss' lap. The secretary was no one else but Marlene Schultz. I could see by that, that Virgil was a very successful businessman.

I was pretty tired by this time so I decided to find a room in a hotel. Since I was here to have a good time, I went to the best I could find. As I walked up to the desk, I recognized Bill Hakeman standing behind it. He told me he was the owner of it but was just taking over while his manager went out to supper. Bill was still kind of blurry eyed from watching the leader of the parade, so I got a room and wandered around the lobby. I found a large showcase of trophies which I inquired about. They all belonged to Arwin Van Wyk for being the world's most daring auto dare devil. I heard music coming from the TV set in the corner so I went over to see who it was. There on the TV screen was Don Rubsam, the star hill billy singer on the "Rambling Range Riders" TV show.

As I went up the elevator to my room I thought how wonderful it was that each person in the senior class of 1954 had made a success of himself.

We, the senior class of 1954, would like to thank all of you who helped to make this annual possible.

To those of you who very graciously gave your many ads. For we couldn't have done this without you.

And thank you, so many of you who put in your time and talent to work on the annual.

And also many thanks to you who have bought this annual. We hope that you have enjoyed it as much as we have enjoyed doing it and that it will give you many pleasant memories in the years to come.

We would especially like to thank our sponsors, Mr. Harry Ellett, Principal, for helping us all through, sponsoring our activities and realizing our needs and wishes too.

And Mr. Ken Erwin, Superintendent, for keeping us in line, and helping us finance our annual which we think is mighty fine.

Both of them have been pushing us all the way. So you see, we have to put them last because they have pushed us all the rest of the way so we will let them sit back here overlooking it all.

To Mr. Glover, Anderson, Borden, Moll, Miss McGreevy and Berryhill, we thank you for the help you have given us the whole year through.

We also wish to extend our thanks to the teachers who have struggled with us in primary on up through. We hope you will be proud of us, knowing you had a hand in our lives too.

So this last page is also the last chapter of our lives in good old SHS. A chapter in our lives which we will never forget.

Harry Ellett
